

RUNAWAY TRAIN

By DAVID PIRNER
Arranged by DAN COATES

Moderately

mf

1 5 1 2 5 1 2 5 1 4 3 1

1

4

C mp

1

5 1 2 1

Call you up in the mid - dle of the night,
Can you help me re - mem - ber how to smile?

C/B

Am

1

5 1 2 1

like a fi - re - fly with - out a light. —
Make it some - how all seem worth - while? —

1

You were there like a
How on earth did I

2

3

G

1

1 2 1 3 2

blow - torch burn - ing. — get so jad - ed?

1

I was a key that could use a lit - tle turn - ing. —
Life's mys - ter - y seems so fad - ed. —

4

C C/B

So tired that I could - n't ev - en sleep, - so man - y sec - rets
I can go where no one else can go. — I know what

1 2 1 5

1

Am

I could - n't keep. — Prom - ised my - self I would - n't weep. — no one else knows. — Here I am just drown-in' in the rain —

1 2 1 5

1

G

One more prom - ise I could - n't keep. It seems — with a tick - et for a run - a - way train. Ev -

3 4 2

1

F G

— no one — can help — me and now. — I'm in —
'ry - thing — seems cut — and dry; — day —

5 4

5 4

C 5 1 Am 4 2 F

— too deep,— there's no way out.— This time I have real—
 — and night,— earth and sky.— Some - how I—

1 2 4

C/E 2 5 1 G 4 1 4 5 1

— ly led— my - self a - stray—
 just don't- be - lieve it.— }

5 3

♩ C 5 1 2 1 Em 5 2 1

mf Run - a - way train nev - er go - ing back,— wrong way on a

1 5

1 4 2 3 Am 5 1 2 3 1

one - way track.— Seems like I should be get - ting some - where.

1 2

G 3 3 2 1 To Coda 1. 5 2 1

Some- how I'm neith-er here nor there.—

1 3 5 2 4

2. C

mf Bought a tick - et for a run - a - way train. — Like a mad man

1 2

Am

laugh - in' at the rain; — lit - tle out of touch,

3

D.S. al Coda ☉

G

lit - tle in - sane. — Just eas - i - er than deal - ing with the pain. —

4

Coda C ☉

Dm/C C G7 C

mp rit. p

1 2 5