Dixit Dominus

Vulgate Psalm 109

George Frideric Handel

(1685—1759)

HWV 232

Composed April 1707 in Rome

Instrumentation: SSATB soloists and chorus, Strings (2,2,1,1), Continuo

Duration: 30’

Source: Händel Gesamtausgabe, band 38, pp. 53–126, edited by Friedrich Chrysander, published 1872.

Editor’s notes: These parts derive from a transcription of Chrysander’s 19th century edition printed in volume 38 of the complete works. The sequence from Juravit Dominus to Conquassabit is essentially unbroken, so the editor has labelled the main musical divisions and renumbered bars from the beginning of each section. This may cause problems with numeration of bar numbers should there be a mixture of vocal scores and instrumental parts being used. Some minor corrections have been made to resolve harmonic ambiguity between the string and vocal parts, and to remove archaic forms of tied notes. The Viola II part is notated in alto clef rather than as Chrysander notated it, using the tenor clef for the most part. In Chrysander’s edition the Violoncello, Bass, and Continuo parts are almost always compressed onto the one stave of music (the exception is De torrente, where the cello has a separate part notated). Hence the Continuo part is reproduced more or less exactly, with figuring; the Violoncello part has had instrumental doublings removed (where the Continuo part reproduces the violin or viola parts), and the Bass part in addition has had the solo passages for the cello removed; this includes the whole of Virgam virtutis. The bass follows the Continuo part in De torrente rather than the separate part for cello.
